

Continuation of interview summary:

Having a machine perform a process, would overcome the 101 rejection, on page 2 paragraph 3, of the office action.

The 112 rejections, on pages 3-5, need to be individually addressed.

In addition, since there are multiple embodiments of the invention, presented in the disclosure, applicant was requested to clarify the issues and provide support for the amendments by pointing out specific portions of the disclosure.